The ballot paper statement referred to in section 53(a) of the Act must be in a form substantially similar to Appendix 19.

26. Counting procedure

1. The counting of votes contemplated in section 60(2) of the Act must be conducted in the following manner:

   a) The ballot papers are sorted according to the different ballots conducted at the voting station.

   b) Thereafter, in respect of each ballot, the following procedure is followed:
(i) The ballot papers for each ballot are counted and compared with the total number of ballot papers issued (and not cancelled) for that ballot at the voting station as reflected on the ballot paper statement completed by the presiding officer in terms of regulation 25.

(ii) The ballot papers are examined in order to determine whether any must be rejected for a reason mentioned in section 61 (1) of the Act.

(iii) The rejected ballot papers, if any, are filed separately.

(iv) The remaining ballot papers are sorted face up according to the votes cast in favour of each party or ward candidate, as the case may be.

(v) The ballot papers for each party or each ward candidate are bound separately in packages of 10 and thereafter 10 packages of 10 bound together with elastic bands.

(vi) The ballot papers for each party or each ward candidate, as the case may be, are counted and the totals recorded in terms of section 63(1) in a form substantially similar to Appendix 20A, in the case of a party list ballot and in a form substantially similar to Appendix 20B in the case of a ward ballot.

27. Record of objections

The record of objections to be kept by the counting officer in terms of section 62 (6) of the Act, must be in a form substantially similar to Appendix 21.

28. Recording of result of an election

The result of an election must be recorded in terms of section 64(b) of the Act in a form substantially similar to Appendix 22A in the case of an election for a metropolitan council or a local council, and in a form substantially similar to Appendix 22B in the case of an election of a district council.

28A. Declaration of secrecy

The declaration of secrecy to be signed by a person in terms of section 37(4) of the Act before that person can be appointed as an officer, must be in a form substantially similar to Appendix 23.

[Reg. 28A inserted by GN R848/2005]

PART VII : GENERAL PROVISIONS
29. Offences and penalties

Any person who makes a false statement or furnishes false particulars in any application or other document prescribed by these regulations shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine or imprisonment.

30. Short title

These regulations are called the Municipal Electoral Regulations, 2000.

SCHEDULE B

Code of Conduct for Accredited Observers

1. Every accredited observer and person appointed by the observer must-

1.1 Observe the election impartially and independently of any registered party or candidate contesting the election.

1.2 Remain non-partisan and neutral.

1.3 Be competent and professional in observing the election.

1.4 Provide the Commission with a comprehensive review of the elections taking into account all relevant circumstances including -

(a) the degree of impartiality shown by the Commission;

(b) the degree of freedom of political parties to organise, move, assemble and express their views publicly;

(c) the opportunity for political parties to have their agents observe all aspects of the electoral process;

(d) the fairness of access for political parties to national media and other resources of the state;

(e) the proper conduct of polling and counting of votes; and

(f) any other issue that concerns the essential freedom and fairness of the election.

1.5 Comply with all instructions given and every obligation imposed by -

(a) the Commission;

(b) any electoral officer; or

(c) any employee or officer of the Commission; or

(d) a member of the security services acting on the instructions of an officer.
2. The accredited observer and any person appointed by that observer should -

2.1 Avoid doing anything that would indicate or be seen as indicating partisan support for a candidate or registered party.

2.2 Act in a strictly neutral and unbiased manner.

2.3 Disclose to the Commission any relationship that could lead to conflict of interest regarding the performance of their duties as observers or with the process of observation or assessment of the election.

2.4 Not accept any gifts or favour from a political party, organisation or person involved in the election process.

2.5 Not participate in any function or activity that could lead to a perception of sympathy for a particular candidate or political party.

2.6 Not express a view or opinion on any matter, which is the subject of electoral campaigning.

2.7 Not influence or attempt to influence the choice of a voter regarding any registered party or candidate in an election.

2.8 Not wear, carry, or display any registered party’s symbols or colours.

SCHEDULE C

Code For Accredited Voter Education Providers

1. Every accredited voter education provider must -

1.1 inform and make voters aware of their protected right to freedom of conscience and belief, freedom of speech and expression, freedom of association, and peaceful assembly, freedom of movement and of the right to participate freely in peaceful political activities;

1.2 respect the right of voters to elect a party of their choice by using an impartial training method;

1.3 ensure that voters are informed and made aware thereof that political parties and the media are free to impart information and opinion;

1.4 always act in a non-partisan manner and be free of any influence or control by any political party or organisation; and

1.5 strive to promote democratic pluralism and a culture of political tolerance.

2. Every accredited voter education provider must -

2.1 keep such books of account that are reasonably necessary; and

2.2 use funds received only for the purpose for which it was appropriated.

3. No accredited voter education provider may -

3.1 misuse any funds received for the purpose of voter education;

3.2 attempt to ascertain for which candidate or party any voter intends to vote;

3.3 induce, influence, persuade or procure a voter to register for or vote in an election, in the knowledge that such voter is not entitled to register or vote in the election concerned;

3.4 influence or attempt to influence the choice of a voter regarding any party or candidate in an election;

3.5 publish, repeat or disseminate in any manner whatsoever false information; and

3.6 obstruct or interfere with the work of any official or representative of the Commission.

4. Accredited voter education providers must -

4.1 act in a strictly neutral and unbiased manner in every matter concerning a political party, candidate or voter;

4.2 do nothing that could indicate, or be seen as indicating, partisan support for a candidate or political party;

4.3 not accept any gift or favour from a political party or any person involved in the election process; and

4.4 not wear, carry or display any obviously partisan party symbols or colours.
