No. 6 ya 2018: Molao wa Tshehetso ya Ditjhelete ho Mekga ya Dipolotiki, 2018
To provide for, and regulate, the public and private funding of political parties, in particular; the establishment and management of Funds to fund represented political parties sufficiently; to prohibit certain donations made directly to political parties; to regulate disclosure of donations accepted; to determine the duties of political parties in respect of funding; to provide for powers and duties of the Commission; to provide for administrative fines; to create offences and penalties; to repeal the Public Funding of Represented Political Parties Act, 1997, and provide for transitional matters; and to provide for related matters.

PREAMBLE

WHEREAS the Constitution establishes the foundational values of accountability and openness in a multi-party democracy;

AND WHEREAS it is important to deepen democracy, promote the national interest and to protect the sovereignty of the Republic;

AND WHEREAS the Republic’s public international law obligations require it to incorporate the principle of transparency in the funding of political parties;

AND WHEREAS section 236 of the Constitution, in promoting that principle, requires national legislation to provide for the funding of political parties participating in national and provincial legislatures on an equitable and proportional basis to enhance multi-party democracy;

AND WHEREAS effect is given to this section through money made available to those political parties from a fund created by law for that purpose;

AND WHEREAS section 44 of the Constitution affords Parliament legislative authority to pass legislation with regard to any matter, which would include to regulate private funding of political parties;

AND WHEREAS effect is given to this by—

• establishing an additional fund to receive funding from private sources subject to certain restrictions;
• prohibiting certain donations being made directly to political parties; and
• providing for the disclosure of donations,

FUNDS

Establishment of Represented Political Party Fund

2. (1) A Represented Political Party Fund is hereby established for the purpose of enhancing multi-party democracy by providing for the funding of represented political parties.

(2) The Commission must open an account for this Fund with any bank registered as a bank in terms of the Banks Act, 1990 (Act No. 94 of 1990).

(3) The Commission must credit the account contemplated in subsection (2) with—
   (a) money appropriated by an Act of Parliament;
   (b) any money recovered in terms of section 17; and
   (c) interest earned on money invested in terms of section 4(1).

Establishment of Multi-Party Democracy Fund

3. (1) A Multi-Party Democracy Fund is hereby established for the purpose of funding represented political parties from private sources.

(2) The Commission must open an account for this Fund with any bank registered as a bank in terms of the Banks Act, 1990 (Act No. 94 of 1990).

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the Commission must credit the account contemplated in subsection (2) with—
   (a) money received from any private source whether from inside or outside the Republic;
   (b) any money recovered in terms of section 17; and
   (c) interest earned on money deposited or invested in terms of section 4(1).

(4) The Commission may not accept money received in terms of subsection (3)(a) from any—
   (a) organ of state;
   (b) state owned enterprise; or
   (c) foreign government or foreign government agency.

(5) Any contributor contemplated in subsection (3)(a) may request the Commission not to disclose their identity or the amount of the contribution.

(6) The Commission may charge a fee to defray the cost of administering and managing this Fund, which may not exceed five per cent of the money credited to this fund under subsection (3) during the previous financial year.

Investment of money in Funds

4. (1) Any money in the Funds that is not required immediately for making an allocation to represented political parties in terms of section 6 may be invested with the Public Investment Corporation in terms of the Public Investment Corporation Act, 2004 (Act No. 23 of 2004).

(2) The Commission may, with the approval of the Minister of Finance, carry forward any money standing to the credit of the Represented Political Party Fund at the end of the financial year to the next financial year as a credit balance.

(3) The Commission must carry forward any money standing to the credit of the Multi-Party Democracy Fund at the end of the financial year to the next financial year as a credit balance.

   (a) all money received or accruing to the Funds;
   (b) all allocations and payments made;
   (c) all expenditure arising from the allocation of money from the Funds; and
   (d) the current record of the capital and liabilities of the Funds during that year.

Allocation and payment of money to represented political party

6. (1) The Commission may allocate money from the Funds to a represented political party only.
   (2) Any allocation from the Funds must be made in accordance with the prescribed formula.
   (3) The formula prescribed in subsection (2) must be based on—
      (a) in part, an equitable allocation taking into account a weighted scale of representation for an allocation to a represented political party; and
      (b) in part, a proportional allocation taking into account the relationship that the number of a represented political party’s representatives in both the National Assembly and the provincial legislatures bears to the sum of the seats in these legislatures.
   (4) The Commission must apply the formula prescribed in subsection (2) taking into account the number of representatives of each represented political party and the number of seats in the respective legislatures based on the results of the election.
   (5) The Commission may not take into account any money carried forward in terms of section 13(1) when it determines the allocation of money to a represented political party.
   (6) Any allocation of money from the Funds to a represented political party ends when the party ceases to be a party with representation as contemplated in subsection (1).
   (7) The Commission must pay the allocated amounts to each of the represented political parties at prescribed intervals.

Purposes for which money from Funds may be used

7. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the money paid in terms of section 6(7) may be used by that represented political party for any purpose compatible with its functioning as a political party in a modern democracy including—
   (a) the development of the political will of the people;
   (b) bringing the political party’s influence to bear on the shaping of public opinion;
   (c) inspiring and furthering political education;
   (d) promoting active participation by individual citizens in political life;
   (e) exercising an influence on political trends;
   (f) ensuring continuous and vital links between the people and organs of state; and

DUTIES OF POLITICAL PARTIES

Political party to furnish information to Commission

11. In order for the Commission to monitor compliance with this Act, a political party must, at the prescribed times, furnish the Commission with any information and documentation that is prescribed, or required in terms of a direction issued under section 15.

Political party to account for income

12. (1) A political party must—
   (a) deposit all donations received by that political party, membership fees and levies imposed by the political party on its representatives into an account with a bank registered as a bank in terms of the Banks Act, 1990 (Act No. 94 of 1990), in that political party’s name;
   (b) keep a separate account with a bank registered as a bank in terms of the Banks Act, 1990 (Act No. 94 of 1990), into which all money allocated to it from the Funds must be deposited;
   (c) appoint an office-bearer or official of that political party as its accounting officer; and
   (d) appoint an auditor registered and practising as such in terms of the Auditing Professions Act, 2005 (Act No. 26 of 2005), to audit its books and financial statements.

(2) The accounting officer contemplated in subsection (1)(c) must—
   (a) account for all income received by the political party;
   (b) ensure that—
      (i) any money allocated from the Funds is not paid out for a purpose not authorised by this Act; and
      (ii) the political party complies with this Act;
   (c) keep separate books and records of account, in the prescribed manner, in respect of money allocated from the Funds and all transactions involving that money; and
   (d) within the prescribed period—
      (i) prepare a statement showing all money received by the represented political party from the Funds during the previous financial year, the application of that money and the purposes for which the money has been applied;
      (ii) prepare a statement showing all donations and membership fees, and any levy imposed by the political party on its elected representatives during that financial year; and
      (iii) submit those statements and the books and records of account to an auditor appointed in terms of subsection (1)(d).

(3) On receipt of the statements, books and records contemplated in subsection (2)(d)(iii), the auditor must perform an audit of the financial statements and express an opinion on those statements—
   (a) indicating whether the donations received by the political party comply with section 8(1);
   (b) listing the donations required to be disclosed in terms of section 9(1);
   (c) listing the donations under the threshold prescribed in section 9(1);
   (d) indicating whether any income was received by the political party other than provided for in terms of this Act;
   (e) indicating whether the transactions in the financial statements related to the money allocated from the Funds are in accordance with this Act; and
   (f) indicating whether any money lent to a political party is on commercial terms.

   (d) to answer a question about any relevant information.

(3) If any person refuses or fails to comply with a request contemplated in subsection (2), the Commission may apply to the Electoral Court for an order to compel compliance with that subsection.

(4) If a complaint relating to the income or expenditure of a political party is lodged with the Commission, it must, if the chief executive officer is of the view that there is prima facie substance to the complaint, investigate the complaint.

Commission’s power to issue directions

15. (1) The Commission may issue a direction to a political party in the prescribed manner in order to avoid imposing a sanction—
   (a) after affording that party an opportunity to make representations; and
   (b) if it is of the opinion that the party fails to comply with this Act.

SCHEDULE 2

REGULATIONS ON POLITICAL PARTY FUNDING, 2017

Definitions

1. In these regulations a word or phrase to which a meaning has been assigned in the Act has that meaning, and, unless the context otherwise indicates—
   “allocated moneys” means moneys allocated from the Funds to a represented political party during a particular financial year;
   “disclosure threshold” means the threshold referred to in section 9(1)(a) of the Act;
   “equitable allocation” means the allocation referred to in regulation 2(2)(b); and “proportional allocation” means the allocation referred to in regulation 2(2)(a).

Allocation of funding

2. (1) The total amount of funding available for allocations from each of the Funds during a particular financial year must be announced by the Commission by notice in the Gazette within two weeks of the beginning of that financial year.
   (2) The allocations from the Funds to be made and paid to each of the represented political parties concerned are calculated by—
   (a) allocating two thirds of the total amount of funding determined in terms of subregulation (1) in respect of each of the Funds proportionally in accordance with regulation 3; and
   (b) allocating one third of the total amount of funding determined in terms of subregulation (1) in respect of each of the Funds equitably in accordance with regulation 4.

Proportional allocation

3. The proportional allocation is determined by dividing each of the amounts contemplated in regulation 2(2)(a) proportionally among the represented political parties in accordance with the number of seats awarded to each party in the National Assembly and the provincial legislatures jointly.

Equitable allocation

4. The equitable allocation is determined in the following manner:
   (a) The amounts contemplated in regulation 2(2)(b) must be allocated to the national and each of the provincial legislatures in proportion to the number of members of each of those legislatures; and
   (b) the allocation to a particular legislature in terms of paragraph (a) must be divided equally among the represented political parties in each of those legislatures.

Times, Intervals and instalments of payments

5. (1) All allocations to which a represented political party is entitled as determined in terms of regulations 3 and 4, must be paid to the represented political party in question in four equal instalments, each within three months of the previous payment. The first instalment must be paid within four weeks of the beginning of the financial year in question.
   (2) In the event of an election being called in terms of section 49(2) or 108(2) of the Constitution in respect of a particular legislature, any outstanding instalments still to be paid in terms of subregulation (1) to the represented political parties in that legislature during the period of 21 days referred to in section 13(2)(a) of the Act, must be suspended. The instalments so suspended must be distributed within two weeks after the date of election to the political parties that gain representation in the legislature concerned as a result of the election in accordance with the provisions of regulations 3 and 4, as the case may be.
